

Wesley Open Wardrobe

As the name suggests, the wardrobe is open. The residents of Wesley Edward Eagar Lodge, our supported accommodation service in Surry Hills, are welcome to choose suitable clothing with your help.

When facing the reality of homelessness, there are many challenges to address. While volunteers can't fully solve the problem, they can help our residents feel more confident and empowered. Volunteers will setup a market-like stall and help clients choose suitable clothing.

What we need from you?

A friendly smile and an eye for fashion.

How many volunteers?

Small groups of 6 – 10

How long will it take?

10 am – 3 pm

How will you make a difference?

Help someone who is homeless find the clothes they need – like a suit for an upcoming job interview or a pair of shorts for the summer months.

Cost

Costs will be quoted when full details and numbers are confirmed.

To discuss a volunteering opportunity that fits your group, call (02) 9263 5551 or email us on volunteering@wesleymission.org.au

Do all the good you can because every life matters