

Protect your future with this exclusive offer

Appoint someone you trust to make decisions on your behalf – now and into the future.

Preparing ahead means more than just writing your Will. A Power of Attorney and an Enduring Guardianship allow you to nominate someone to manage your financial, medical and lifestyle decisions if you're ever unable to – whether due to illness, travel or unexpected life events.

These arrangements ensure your wishes are upheld in life – not just after it. It's today's choice for tomorrow's peace of mind.

Normally costing over $600, we're offering both documents together for just $330 (incl. GST) per person – thanks to the generosity of our solicitors.

This offer is separate from your Will preparation. The $330 fee is payable directly to the solicitor at the time of finalising your documents.

This exclusive offer is only available at your Wesley Wills Day appointment.

Protect your wishes – now and later.
