

Wesley Homeless Food Challenge

Located in the Wesley Centre on Pitt St, Wesley Connect supply food packages to people who are experiencing homelessness or at risk of becoming homeless.

Corporate volunteers will learn about homelessness in Sydney by taking the challenge to shop for three days' worth of food with just $10. Participants then regroup to discuss their choices.

If you're up for a more physical activity check out our Amazing Race style Wesley City Survival Challenge.

What we need from you?

An open mind that actively considers the limited choices homeless people face today and the willingness to accept a challenge.

How many volunteers?

Groups of 20 – 100+

How long will it take?

Half day 10 am – 1 pm or 2 – 5 pm

How will you make a difference?

All food bought will be donated to the Wesley Connect program which provides food for those in need including rough sleepers or those who are finding themselves under increasing financial stress.

Cost

Costs will be quoted when full details and numbers are confirmed.

To discuss a volunteering opportunity that fits your group, call (02) 9263 5551 or email us on volunteering@wesleymission.org.au

Do all the good you can because every life matters