

Are you interested in volunteering?

Volunteering can be a great way to enrich your community. Learning some fundamental skills can help underpin your journey into being an effective volunteer.

Wesley Training are seeking expressions of interest for a short course in skills for volunteering

Register your expression of interest now on the QR code as spots are limited

