About the course

This program offers individuals the opportunity to gain a qualification and experience that provides a pathway into numerous areas within the community services sectors including youth work, home care and accommodation services.

Who should enrol

Individuals seeking the opportunity to receive accredited training in the community services sector. Applicants should possess a calm, patient nature and should be capable of operating within an environment that deals with a broad range of challenging social and welfare related issues.

Learning outcomes

Successful completion of this course will enable you to gain a nationally accredited qualification in a sector that offers opportunities for employment within programs that assist many “at risk” members of our communities.

Attendance, study load and student support

You will be required to:

- Attend all scheduled face to face classroom delivery organised with your trainer as per training plan (including simulated activities), (excluding course breaks);
- Participate in all required online e-learning, which includes self-paced online e-learning;
- Undertake self-directed learning activities, including individual research in your own time (estimated at 10 – 15 hours per week. Details and expectations on these activities will be provided in your individual training plan; and
- Undertake theory and practical assessment activities (approximately 20 - 25 hours per unit of competency).

Student support is available on request and organised with your trainer.

Work experience/placement

- Complete a minimum of 40 hours of work placement within the seven month program.
- Work experience is to be organised by each individual student with the support of your trainer within a community service area of your choosing.
- Work experience days, times and frequency to be arranged by each individual in order to accommodate any existing care requirements.
- The Trainer/Assessor will require each learner to complete a logbook and reflection journal based on their experiences along with requesting a supervisor's evaluation to identify skills strengths and development opportunities.

Assessment

Assessment will include a range of activities such as written tasks, oral questions and observation within a simulated community services environment and during your workplacement in the workplace.
